

EURO XXIII in Bonn
July 5 – 8, 2009

Conference Topic:
Operations Research: Creating Competitive Advantage

Bonn – City of Beethoven

- International Center of Science (e.g. CAESAR – Center of Advanced European Studies and Research, University with 4 Nobelprize Winners, several Max Planck Institutes), Arts (Museums, e.g. the Arithmeum) and Politics (e.g. United Nations, German Government Buildings)

- United Nations University (Bonn, Tokyo)

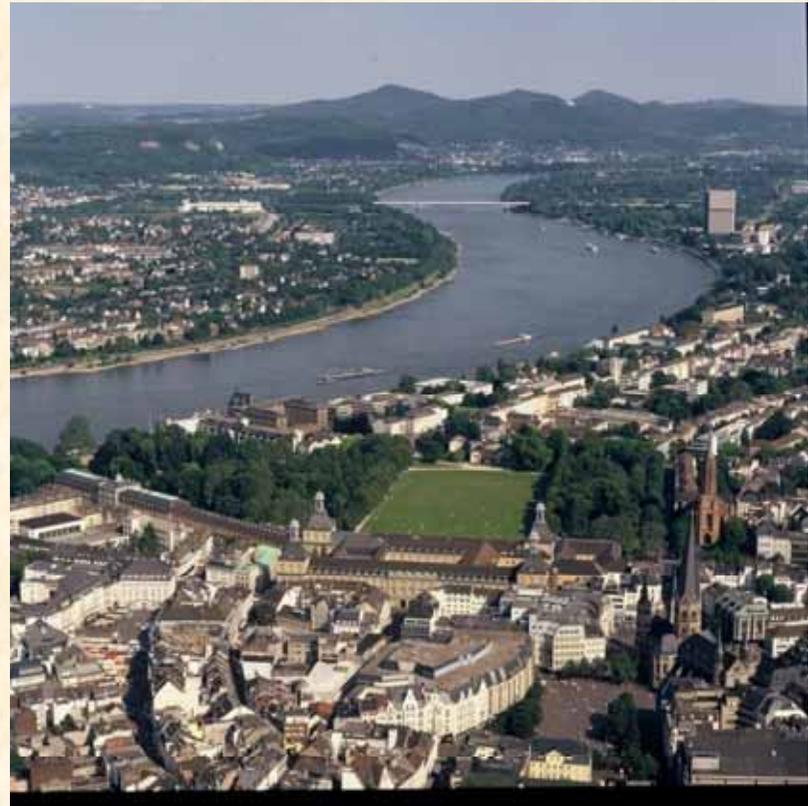

Petersberg

Many Unique Sights for half-day pre- or post conference tours.

EURO XXIII in Bonn, July 2009

Conference Facilities

- Gustav-Stresemann Institute
(<http://www.gsi-bonn.de/index.htm>)
and, just across the street, the

- Maritim-Hotel (the biggest Maritim conference hotel in Germany)

EURO XXIII in Bonn, July 2009

OC

- Erwin Pesch (Chair, University of Siegen)
- Peter Letmathe (Co-chair, University of Siegen)
- Josef Jablonsky, Prague
- Frank Schultmann (University of Siegen)
- Gerhard Wäscher (VP EURO)
- Gerhard-Wilhelm Weber, Ankara

EURO XXIII in Bonn, July 2009

PC

- Gerhard Woeginger, NL (Chair)
- Horst Hamacher, D
- Graham Kendall, GB
- Bernhard Korte, D
- Jan Karel Lenstra, NL
- Ulrike Leopold-Wildburger, A
- Silvano Martello, I
- Benny Moldovanu, D
- George Nemhauser, USA
- Erwin Pesch, D
- Roman Słowiński, PL
- Gerhard-Wilhelm Weber, TR

Keynote Speakers: (list not complete)

Rainer Burkard
(EURO Gold Medal 1997)

Edmund Burke

Ulrich Dorndorf

Salvatore Greco

Toshihide Ibaraki

Hubertus Jongen

Andrea Lodi

Rolf Moehring
(President Math. Prog. Soc.)

Noam Nisan

Franz Rendl

Nitin Saxena
(Goedel Prize & Fulkerson Prize 2006)

Reinhard Selten
(Nobel Prize 1994)

Michael Trick
(former INFORMS Pres.)

Jens Vygen

How to reach Bonn?

by boat

by air

- The airports Cologne / Bonn and Düsseldorf can directly be reached from all major cities all over the world. There are direct trains from both airports that will take you in 20 - 30 minutes to the Central Station in Bonn.

by car

by train

The Central Station can directly be reached from Frankfurt or Frankfurt Airport within about 90 minutes by train.

See you all in Bonn July 5 – 8, 2009

<http://www.euro-2009.de>

